Expected ROI of wall mounted battery project in Greece 2026

Overview

How much battery storage will Greece have in 2024?

By the end of 2024, Greece's third battery storage auction will offer 200 MW of standalone battery projects, bringing the total capacity from all three auctions to 900 MW, inching closer to the initial goal of 1,000 MW. The 1,000 MW battery storage target was set in 2021 as part of Greece's National Recovery and Resilience Plan.

How many MW will Greece's third battery storage auction offer?

Auction Details: 200 MW on the Line! By the end of 2024, Greece's third battery storage auction will offer 200 MW of standalone battery projects, bringing the total capacity from all three auctions to 900 MW, inching closer to the initial goal of 1,000 MW.

Why is Greece launching a battery storage auction?

Initially a response to the COVID 19 pandemic, the focus has pivoted to support Greece's green energy transition. The storage auctions themselves require further approval under EU State aid rules. The pipeline of prospective battery storage projects now approaches 27GW, with over 500 projects granted a storage license.

Does Greece have a battery storage pipeline?

Greece has emerged as one of the countries with the largest pipeline of battery storage projects, but as yet there has been little activity on the ground. This is changing as the long-awaited storage subsidy auctions have started, with the first projects being awarded support for both investment and operating costs.

How much battery storage will Europe have by 2030?

However, based on current policies, the country looks set to hit only 4.8GW of operational battery storage capacity by 2030, as shown in the above

Why is Greece launching a storage auction in 2021?

Funding was first announced in 2021 as part of the National Recovery and Resilience Plan. Initially a response to the COVID 19 pandemic, the focus has pivoted to support Greece's green energy transition. The storage auctions themselves require further approval under EU State aid rules.
