Italy's Regulatory Authority for Energy, Networks and Environment (ARERA) has approved a series of modifications impacting the maximum price that can be offered in the country's first forward capacity market auction for electricity storage (MACSE).

The €5,000 boost from the Italian energy regulator has come via changes to three key parameters: the investment cost (INV), the rate of return on invested capital, and the operational cost factor (CFO), leading to a higher price cap in the upcoming capacity market auction for energy storage.

In response to this necessity, Legislative Decree 210/2021 (Implementation of EU Directive 2019/944 of the European Parliament and of the Council of June 5, 2019 concerning common rules for the internal market in electricity and amending Directive 2012/27/EU, and laying down provisions for the.

The first of Italy's new energy storage capacity procurement auctions (MACSE) will take place on September 30, 2025, Terna's president for grid development strategies, Francesco Del Pizzo, has confirmed. After months of speculation and a postponement from the initially planned July date, it's clear.

Legislative Decree 210/21 introduced a new mechanism for the procurement of electricity storage capacity ("MACSE"), developed with the aim of integrating renewable energy sources with an efficient level of overgeneration (i.e., when electricity production exceeds demand), based on planned grid.

The Electricity Storage Capacity Procurement Mechanism (in Italian "Meccanismo di Approvvigionamento di Capacità di Stoccaggio Elettrico": MACSE) is a regulatory initiative aimed at fostering the growth of electricity storage capacity in Italy. This growth is crucial to accommodate the increasing.
