solar, and hydro power plants. However, to reach the greenhouse gas emissions target by 2050, it is necessary to build a total of 21,000-22,000 MW of renewable energy in the European Energy Community. Serbia announced plans to install new hydropower plants and two existing dams, and to rehabilitate a further 15.

Serbia recently signed a contract to construct 1 GW of solar power plants along with 200 MW of battery storage. These projects will significantly alter the energy landscape, diversifying the energy mix of EPS, the national energy company. The plan is to add 3.5 GW of renewable capacity by 2030.

Fortis Energy is reinforcing its presence in Southeast Europe's renewable energy market with the development of the 110 MWp Erdevik Solar Power Plant, featuring an integrated 31.2 MWh Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) in Šid, Serbia. This hybrid solar and storage project represents a strategic.

Serbia is planning an ambitious future from now with 100 times more solar power and 10 times more capacity in wind parks for 2030, aiming to cut greenhouse gas emissions by 40.3% and achieve a share of 41% of renewables in gross final energy consumption. Serbia presented the preliminary goals for.
