As part of the 2025 national budget, Chile is allocating $1.2 billion in subsidies specifically for energy storage initiatives. Priority funding is directed toward integrated solar-plus-storage demonstration projects in the Atacama Desert, aiming to accelerate the energy transition in northern.

If you're in the energy storage game, Chile's 2025 tender announcement is like spotting a rare bird in the Atacama Desert—exciting and packed with potential. With a $33 billion global energy storage industry already generating nearly 100 gigawatt-hours annually [1], Chile aims to carve its niche as. Who submitted the lowest bid for a PV project in Chile?

Canadian Solar Libertador Solar Holding SpA submitted the lowest bid for a PV project in Chile's latest clean energy auction. The Chilean National Energy Commission (CNE) has unveiled the offers it received in an auction for 2.31 TWh of renewable energy this week and has revealed that the lowest price submitted was $0.01332/kWh.

Why are solar PV projects being co-located in Chile?

More and more solar PV projects are co-located or hybridised with BESS in Chile as solar PV as standalone projects have become financially unviable in the country. One of the challenges Chile faces is the ever-increasing curtailment of solar PV and wind.

Does Codelco have a PPA for a solar-plus-storage project in Chile?

This is not the first time Codelco and Atlas Renewable Energy have signed a PPA for a solar-plus-storage project in Chile, following the two companies' signing of a 15-year 375GWh 24/7 supply agreement in March 2024. At the time, this marked the developer's entrance into the BESS market, according to its CEO.
