Successful bid price of rooftop solar battery project in Greece 2026

Overview

Interested developers must submit their bids by December 23, 2024, and complete connection applications by January 31, 2026. Originally aiming for a 300-MW award, this tender follows the success of earlier rounds that awarded 411.8 MW in the first auction and 299.8 MW in the second.

Interested developers must submit their bids by December 23, 2024, and complete connection applications by January 31, 2026. Originally aiming for a 300-MW award, this tender follows the success of earlier rounds that awarded 411.8 MW in the first auction and 299.8 MW in the second.

This round sets a maximum bid price of EUR 145,000 per MWh and is open to standalone battery proposals with four-hour storage durations. Targeted areas for the systems include Western Macedonia, a region previously reliant on lignite, and four municipalities within Peloponnese—Megalopoli, Tripoli.

The average subsidy price in the third auction exercise came at €52589.16/MW/year. The lowest successful bid stood at €43927/MW/year, concerning a 25 MW/100 MWh project in the Western Macedonia region. The highest awarded subsidy came at €58773/MW/year and refers to a 7.9 MW/31.6 MWh project.

While 12 projects won awards in the first tranche of Greece's recent grid-scale energy storage auctions, what of the c.500 totalling nearly 27GW that didn't?

Jon Ferris, LCP Delta's Head of Flexibility and Storage, looks at the dynamics which could play out in rounds two and three in Europe's.

The highest bid was submitted by Plain Solar at €58,700 per megawatt, while the lowest came from Ecosolar at €42,500 per megawatt. The average bid price was lower than that of the first competitive process, which stood at €49,748 per megawatt, but higher than last year's second tender, which.

A joint auction is planned in the third quarter for wind farms that have more than 6 MW in capacity and for photovoltaics of over 1 MW, with a combined quota of 1.2 GW. Around the same time, an auction for PV units of less than 1

MW should be held for 200 MW, as well as a special auction for wind.

The Greek government has officially fired the starting gun of a EUR-238-million (USD 261.8m) programme that will subsidise the installation of rooftop solar systems coupled with battery storage. The maximum prices are the same as in last year's auction for domestic projects. As for the auctions to take place in 2023, the prices were set at EUR 70 per MWh for PV and at EUR 83 per MWh for wind farms. Investors that win at the joint tenders will have a maximum of 36 months to realize wind projects and 30 months for PV.

How many battery storage projects are being auctioned this year?

The pipeline of prospective battery storage projects now approaches 27GW, with over 500 projects granted a storage license. With support for 1GW of battery capacity to be auctioned 3 tranches this year, the results for the first auction of 400MW have been announced with a few winners, but lots of losers.
